⚠ One posting we left off

A remote "Package Reshipping Coordinator" listing promised $900 a week and asked for bank details before an interview. That pattern matches common job scams, so we didn't include it. Never pay a fee or share bank information to get a job.

How to apply: each job has an Apply link in your email version of this list. Use your new resume, and send the matching cover letter for your top 3. Postings change fast, so apply this week. We can't promise interviews, but a tailored resume and letter give you the best shot.
